If Landlord must enforce this Lease through legal action, Tenant shall be responsible for all reasonable attorney fees and court costs incurred by Landlord.

19. Misrepresentation and Omission Clause

Tenant's Representations: Tenant affirms that all information provided in their rental application, supporting documents, and communications with Landlord or Landlord's agents is true, complete, and accurate to the best of their knowledge.

Material Misrepresentation or Omission: Any false statement, material misrepresentation, or omission of fact—including but not limited to income, employment, rental history, criminal background, or household composition—whether intentional or negligent, shall be deemed a substantial breach of this Lease.

Remedies: In the event of such breach, Landlord shall have the right to immediately terminate this Lease and pursue all remedies available under law, including but not limited to eviction, regardless of whether Tenant has already taken possession of the Premises.

20. TENANT RESPONSIBILITY FOR NEGLIGENCE-RELATED REPAIRS

Tenant(s) shall be responsible for the full cost of any repairs, service calls, or replacements resulting from misuse, carelessness, abuse, or negligence by the Tenant(s), their household members, guests, or invitees. This responsibility includes, but is not limited to, the following examples:

Plumbing: Drain clogs or damage caused by improper disposal of items, including but not limited to hair, toys, wipes (including those labeled "flushable"), feminine hygiene products, paper towels, grease, food waste, or other foreign objects not intended for drain or toilet disposal.

HVAC & Heating Systems: Service calls, repairs, or replacements made necessary by failure to perform basic tenant maintenance, including but not limited to: allowing heating oil, propane, or other fuel to run out, causing system lockout or damage, failing to replace air filters when provided or when reasonably accessible, or blocking vents and returns causing system strain or failure.

Appliances & Fixtures: Damage to stoves, ovens, refrigerators, dishwashers, or other appliances caused by misuse or unsafe behavior, including but not limited to: allowing children or adults to hang, climb on, or use appliances in a manner inconsistent with their intended purpose; using the wrong fuel type or cookware; or leaving appliances unattended in a manner that results in damage.

Doors, Windows & Hardware: Damage to locks, doors, windows, screens, or hardware resulting from forced entry by the Tenant due to lockout, improper operation, or abuse.

Walls, Floors & Surfaces: Damage beyond normal wear and tear, including stains, burns, holes, gouges, or pet damage.

Pest Infestation: Extermination costs resulting from Tenant's failure to maintain reasonable cleanliness, improper food storage, or introduction of infested furniture or belongings into the premises.

General Negligence: Any repair, replacement, or service call resulting from a failure to promptly report a known issue to Landlord that, if reported in a timely manner, could have been resolved at lesser cost, shall be the financial responsibility of the Tenant for any damages attributable to the delay.

In all cases, the Landlord reserves the right to arrange for repairs using a contractor of the Landlord's choosing. The cost of such repairs shall be billed directly to the Tenant and, if unpaid within 14 days of written notice, shall be treated as additional rent and subject to the same remedies available for non-payment of rent under this lease and applicable law.

The examples provided herein are illustrative and do not represent a complete list of situations for which a Tenant may be held financially responsible.
